SHE DOTTED ON DIAMONDS.

Martha Bigstaff, of Georgetown, who lives in a house in the rear of Mrs. James E. Cantrill, wife of the Appellate Judge, offered several diamonds for sale in that city and sold one to a Georgetown jeweler. It was learned later that she had stolen the gems from Mrs. Cantrill. Chief of Police Zach Lusby has recovered 12 diamonds, an emerald, a diamond ring and part of a necklace. The diamonds had been taken from the settings. The value of the recovered stones is placed at $500. The girl is only 14 years old and will probably be sent to the house of correction.

FATAL FIGHT OVER BILLIARDS.

Collins Harding, reporter on the Richmond Climax, was shot, perhaps fatally, Monday night during a fight with John Burton, of College Hill, over a billiard game in a saloon in Richmond. Burton was arrested.

NEW TRACTION SURVEY.

The survey of the Paris, North Midletown and Mt. Sterling Interurban traction line was completed to Mt. Sterling several days ago. There being some objection to the route surveyed, the engineers began on a new route on this city Tuesday morning. It being contended that the original survey will run through too many large farms while the new route now being surveyed will pass through a more populous section of the county. It is also contended that on the original survey, the road will run for two miles through the lands of a wealthy Bourbon farmer, who declines to donate the right of way, while the route now being surveyed will pass through farms where the owners are exceedingly glad to give the right of way in order to secure the advantages afforded by the road.
